

Technical Controlling

In addition to handling our own technical projects, we also offer you technical support for your own projects:

- examining your project documents
- checking your cost calculations and expectations
- checking facilities and installations regarding upcoming investments in order to meet safety requirements
- setting up a technical catalogue of measures for upcoming installations
- developing ideas to optimize given installations and/or concepts
- documenting results